1. Membership Update

We currently have 100 financial members, which is about the same as last year. There are a few players who we are expecting to come back to squash next season, so the goal for this year is around 120 members.

The following players were nominated for teams this year, but haven't played. We have been billed for these people so will have a credit at WA Squash if they don't play this year - Louis Meyer, Kenneth Lim, Eduardo Cosa, Corey Smith

The following pennant players have not yet paid their fees - James Crawshaw, Peter Rinaldi

The following player owes pennants fees only - Ric Nicholas

Decision

Players nominated but not playing will be contacted as part of the winter season to see what they are wanting to do.

Further to the discussion at the last meeting, it is important to contact all players over the next month to find out what they are doing for pennants next season. We are likely going to need to change some teams.

Elliott Sawyer looking to swap with Antony Campbell. Mark Chow is a new player who is interested, he will come down on Thursday so we can work out a ranking.

Tasks

6. Funds for centre improvement

Discussed that the renovation plans still need further discussion and approval. When looking at upgrading the facilities, the kitchen is the area that most members commented on during the recent survey. Possibly look at replacing the wall oven, then the standing oven, and buying a drinks fridge that will cater to pennant teams needs. All of these items can then be relocated into the new layout when this proceeds.

7. BGRASC - Recent contact

Discussed recent contact to a member from Ric on behalf of the Blue Gum Racquetball & Social Club (BGRASC). Ric has been contacted by the squash club, and centre manager asking him to stop using reference to the squash club and centre in his communications, and to stop using the centre noticeboards and address, as the BGRASC has not current standing there.

An email was sent to all members alerting them to this issue, and advising that this is a separate entity.

An invitation was sent to the BGRASC to discuss working together with the club and centre was extended. There has been no further contact from Ric at this stage.

Thurs 13th April - The BGRASC posted several notices on the squash club board, and at the centre. These were removed and an email sent asking those responsible to not do this again.

Decision

Ongoing communication will be managed if, and when it occurs
